```
          G          D/F#          Em
1 . Who am I, that the Lord of all the earth
        D                C              D                C
would care to know my name? Would care to feel my hurt?
        G          D/F#                Em
Who am I, that the bright and morning star
        D                C          D                C
would choose to light the way for my ever wandering heart?

                Em             D          C                      D
PreCh.: Not because of who I am But because of what you've done
                Em                  D          C                   D4
        Not because of what I've done But because of who you are

  G          D/F#              Em
Ch.: I am a flower quickly fading,
              D                C          D                C
    Here today and gone tomorrow a wave tossed in the ocean (ocean)
       D/F#          G
    A vapor in the wind
              D/F#                Em                D                    C
    Still you hear me when I'm calling Lord, you catch me when I'm falling
                 D              C
    And you've told me who I am
         G   C        Em    D
    I am yours,  I am yours

          G          D/F#                Em
2. Who am I, that the eyes that see my sin
        D                C          D                C
would look on me with love and watch me rise again
        G          D/F#                Em
Who am I, that the voice that calmed the sea
        D                C          D                C
would call out through the rain and calm the storm in me?

I am yours, I am yours
Whom shall I fear? Whom shall I fear?
'Cause I am yours, I am yours
